The farm location and stud fee are believed to be accurate although the CBHI will not assume any responsibility for errors. All successful bids are final and all participants accept the rules and regulations before submitting their bid. Refunds will only apply in the event of a stallion's death or inability to breed (as evidenced by a veterinary certificate) (not by gelding). The purchasing party will not hold the CBHI or any other entity associated directly to the CBHI and the individuals working in conjunction with it, responsible for any errors and/or liabilities.

All stallion services are sold as per the stallion farm's rules. It is the bidder's responsibility to research the specific charges (ex.GST) and conditions with respect to that particular stallion. Shipped cooled semen, mare care, chute /farm fees and veterinarian /farrier etc. services are not included. (it may be recommended to research the contract prior to bidding)

Minimum bid is ½ of the stallion's current fee or unless noted. In the event of a tie, all parties will be contacted and given the opportunity to bid at a higher figure.
